FROM THE PRESIDENT

See you on Tuesday.

Rich

- We welcomed George Kiser back. It was great to see him doing so well since his surgery.
- Two new members joined and were introduced at the meeting: John & Tari Hood.
- There was one outstanding item which we will have to get going in the future—the formation of a Christmas Party Committee.
- Treasurer's report:
 - Education account -- $9599.00
 - Operating account -- $2691.83
- The Guild auction will be this Sat. (4-28). A security deposit has been paid for the upcoming Guild auction. Planning was done during this Guild meeting for the auction, including asking for and obtaining volunteers. Dave Howard will be the auctioneer.

- Education:
 - Stenciling/gold leaf class is full. There is 1 person on the waiting list. The date of the class is not set yet but will probably be in the Fall.
 - One day troubleshooting clock class will be in the future. Contact Mary Ellen Bell to sign up for it.
 - Casting class is planning for a 4 day course which would be on May 19-20 and June 2-3. The class will be limited to 10. Contact Rich Reich to sign up for.
 - Accutron class possibly in Sept.
 - There was some discussion on other possible future watch courses, e.g., one on restaffing.
- Gene Galbraith announced that the Southwest Museum of Clocks and Watches is now incorporated with a board of directors. The Southwest School of Clock Repair is also now starting in a space behind Bob Larson's shop. The school can take 4 students at a time.
